PROVINCIAL SECRETARY

An Extra issue of The Canada Gazette, dated May 29th, 1953, contained the following text of a Royal Proclamation establishing for Canada the Royal Style and Titles:—

PROCLAMATION

ELIZABETH R.

CANADA

ELIZABETH THE SECOND, by the Grace of God, of Great Britain, Ireland, and the British Dominions beyond the Seas, QUEEN, Defender of the Faith.

To all to whom these Presents shall come or whom the same may in anywise concern, GREETING.

A PROCLAMATION

STUART S. GARSON, Attorney-General, Canada. WHEREAS the Prime Ministers and other representatives of Commonwealth countries assembled in London in the month of December, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-two, considered the form of Our Royal Style and Titles, and, recognizing that the present form is not in accordance with present constitutional relations within the Commonwealth, concluded that, in the present stage of development of the Commonwealth relationship, it would be in accord with the established constitutional position that each member country should use for its own purposes a form suitable to its own particular circumstances but retaining a substantial element common to all; And whereas the said representatives of all the Commonwealth countries concerned agreed to take such action as is necessary in each country to secure the appropriate constitutional approval for the changes then envisaged;

And whereas, in order to give effect to the aforesaid conclusions, the Parliament of Canada, under and by virtue of An Act respecting the Royal Style and Titles, assented to on the eleventh day of February, in the year of Our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three, has assented to the issue by Us of Our Royal Proclamation under the Great Seal of Canada establishing for Canada the Style and Titles hereinafter set forth in lieu of the Style and Titles at present appertaining to the Crown:

Now KNOW YE that by and with the advice of Our Privy Council for Canada We do by this Our Royal Proclamation establish for Canada Our Royal Style and Titles as follows, namely, in the English language:

"Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God, of the United Kingdom, Canada and Her other Realms and Territories, Queen, Head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith."

And in the French language:

"Elizabeth Deux, par la grace de Dieu, Reine du Royaume-Uni, du Canada et de ses autres royaumes et territoires, Chef du Commonwealth, Defenseur de la Foi."

Of all which Our Loving Subjects and all others whom these Presents may concern are hereby required to take notice and to govern themselves accordingly.

IN TESTIMONY WHEREOF We have caused these Our Letters to be made Patent and the Great Seal of Canada to be hereunto affixed.

GIVEN the Twenty-eighth day of May in the Year of Our Lord One thousand nine hundred and fifty-three and in the Second Year of Our Reign.

By Her Majesty's Command,

LOUIS S. ST. LAURENT,

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION

"SOCIETIES ACT"

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 4279.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Ebenezer Baptist Church" has this day been incorporated as a Society under the "Societies Act."

The locality in which the operations of the Society will be chiefly carried on is Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and fifty-three.

[L.S.]

S. W. TAYLOR,

Registrar of Companies.

The objects of the Society are:—

(a) To provide for the worship of God, preach and teach the Word of God; to win people to the Lord Jesus Christ; to administer the ordinances of the New Testament; to seek spiritual improvement of its members; to minister to its own community; and to extend the kingdom of Christ in all the earth:

(b) Believing the teachings and practices of the New Testament Baptist Fellowship we pledge to adhere to the following distinctive principles: The Bible, the standard of faith and practice; the Lordship of Jesus Christ; regenerated membership; believer's baptism by immersion; progressive sanctification; soul liberty; separation of church and state; congregational governments:

(c) To believe that the Bible is God's Word, that it was written by men divinely and uniquely inspired, that it is absolutely trustworthy and has supreme authority in all matters of faith and conduct:

(d) To believe in Jesus Christ, God's only begotten Son, conceived of the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, sinless in His life making atonement for the sin of the world by His death on the cross; we believe in His bodily resurrection, His ascension into heaven, His high priestly intercession for His people and His personal visible return to the world according to His promise:

(e) To believe in the Holy Spirit who came forth from God to convince the world of sin, of righteousness, and of judgment, and to regenerate, sanctify, and comfort those who believe in Jesus Christ:

(f) To believe in the Church—a living, spiritual body of which Jesus Christ is the Head and of which all regenerated people are members; we believe that a visible church is a company of believers in Jesus Christ, buried with Him in baptism and associated for worship, work, and fellowship; we believe that to these visible churches were committed, for observance, "Till He Come," the ordinances of baptism and the Lord's supper, and that God has laid upon these churches the task of persuading a lost world to accept Jesus Christ as Saviour and to enthrone Him as Lord and Master;

we believe that human betterment and social improvements are inevitable products of the gospel:

(g) To believe that each Church is independent and autonomous and must be free from interference by any ecclesiastical or political authority; that, therefore, church and state must be kept separate as having different functions, each fulfilling its duties free from the dictation or patronage of the other:

(h) Having been led as we believe by the Spirit of God to receive the Lord Jesus Christ as our Saviour, and on the profession of our faith, having been baptized in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost, we do now, in the presence of God, angels, and this assembly most solemnly and joyfully enter into covenant with one another, as one body in Christ; we engage, therefore, by the aid of the Holy Spirit, to walk together in Christian love:

(i) To strive for the advancement of this church in knowledge, holiness, and comfort; to promote its prosperity and spirituality; to sustain its worship, ordinances, discipline, and doctrines; to give it a sacred pre-eminence over all institutions of human origin; to contribute cheerfully and regularly to the support of the ministry, the expense of the church, the relief of the poor, and the spread of the gospel through all nations; we also engage to maintain family and secret devotion; to religiously educate our children; to seek the salvation of our kindred and acquaintances; to walk circumspectly in the world; to be just in our dealings, faithful in our engagements, and exemplary in our deportment; to avoid all tattling, backbiting, and excessive anger, and to be zealous in our efforts to advance the kingdom of our Saviour:

(j) To watch over one another in brotherly love; to remember each other in prayer; to aid each other in sickness and distress; to cultivate Christian sympathy in feeling and courtesy in speech; to be slow to take offense but always ready for reconciliation, and, mindful of the rules of our Saviour, to secure it without delay:

(k) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, or to sell or dispose of any real or personal property for the use of the said Society and for the furtherance of its objects.
